	1/2/2001 Heard Mr. Prashant Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.Ranveer Singh, learned G.A. for respondents nos. 1 to 4. The grievance of the writ petitioner is that certain piece of land ~~which~~ was earlier leased out to the petitioner but subsequently in a litigation, the same land was declared to be of another person. The petitioner is seeking now a direction to be issued by this Court to the Director to consider his case for settlement of the piece of land or allotment ~~in~~ of alternative land. It is stated that a request in this regard was made but no steps have been taken by the Competent Authority so far. It appears that this matter should not be examined by this Court at this stage, instead it is within the competency of the Collector to examine the request of the petitioner on merits. After hearing learned counsel for the parties, this petition is disposed of as follows: 1) The writ petitioner shall submit a detailed representation before the Collector within one month from today;
